

DISCLAIMER FOR SG SALES AND TRADE IDEAS

THIS DOCUMENT IS NOT INTENDED FOR RETAIL CLIENTS

This document is a marketing communication from the Global Markets Division of Societe Generale ("SG") and is not a product of SG's Research department. It is for qualified institutional or professional clients only and may contain market information, trading strategies, trade ideas and/or information about SG Global Markets products or services. The present document is of a commercial and not of a regulatory nature. IT HAS NOT BEEN PREPARED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE REGULATORY PROVISIONS DESIGNED TO PROMOTE THE INDEPENDENCE OF INVESTMENT RESEARCH.

The contents of this document are given for purely indicative purposes and has no contractual value. The opinions expressed herein are those of the authors named in this document and do not reflect SG's views. To the maximum extent possible at law, SG does not accept any liability arising from the use of this document or information contained herein.

This document does not constitute an offer, or an invitation to make an offer, from SG to subscribe for, purchase or sell a product or to execute a product referred to in this document.

The products referred to in this document may not be suitable for all qualified institutional or professional investors and investors must make their own investment decisions (using their own independent investment advisors as they may choose) - based upon specific financial situations and investment objectives.

The products referred to in this document may not be eligible for sale in all jurisdictions and/or may be subject to certain investor qualification requirements in a number of jurisdictions.

This document may include general investment recommendations issued by SG's Research department which has set, in accordance with applicable regulation, effective administrative and organizational arrangements, including information Chinese walls, to prevent and avoid conflicts of interest with respect to the investment recommendations contained in this document. SG's Research department publications supporting this document were issued on their stated publication date and may have already been acted upon by clients of SG.

SG, AS AN INVESTMENT SERVICES PROVIDER, IS NOT SUBJECT TO ANY PROHIBITION ON DEALING IN THE PRODUCTS MENTIONED HEREIN BEFORE THE DISSEMINATION OF THIS DOCUMENT.

SG Group entities may from time to time (i) deal in, profit from the trading of, hold, or act as market-makers or as advisers, brokers or bankers in relation to, the products (or derivatives thereof) of entities mentioned in this document or (ii) be represented on the board of such entities. SG Group employees, or individuals connected to them, may from time to time have a position in or hold any of the products or related investments mentioned in this document. No SG Group entity is under any obligation to disclose or take account of this document when advising or dealing with or for its clients. Investors should be aware that SG Group entities may have a conflict of interest that could affect the objectivity of this document. Investors should consider this document as only a single factor in making their investment decision.

The accuracy, completeness or relevance of the information which has been drawn from external sources is not guaranteed although it is drawn from sources reasonably believed to be reliable. Subject to any applicable law, Société Generale shall not assume any liability in this respect. The market information displayed in this document is based on data at a given moment and may change from time to time. In addition, the views reflected herein may change without notice and SG's sales personnel and traders may issue at any time other material (including on the same product or issuer) that are inconsistent with, and reach different conclusions from, the information presented herein. No updates to this document are planned. In the event that the reader is unsure as to whether the facts in this document are up-to-date at the time of their proposed investment, then they should seek independent advice.

Clients should contact their salespersons to execute transactions with an SG Group entity authorised in their home jurisdiction, unless applicable law permits otherwise.

Additional information is available upon request. This document is confidential and should not be reproduced, published or redistributed without the prior written consent of SG or its affiliates.

NOTICE TO EUROPEAN INVESTORS:

THIS DOCUMENT IS FOR THE EXCLUSIVE USE OF INVESTORS ACTING ON THEIR OWN ACCOUNT AND CATEGORISED EITHER AS "ELIGIBLE COUNTERPARTIES" OR "PROFESSIONAL CLIENTS" WITHIN THE MEANING OF MARKETS IN FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS DIRECTIVE 2014/65/EU (EU MIFID) AND THE AMENDED, ONSHORED VERSION OF EU MIFID AND ITS ACCOMPANYING REGULATION UNDER THE EU (WITHDRAWAL) ACT 2018 AND THE MARKETS IN FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS (AMENDMENT) (EU EXIT) REGULATIONS 2018 (COLLECTIVELY, UK MIFID). IT CANNOT BE DISCLOSED TO YOUR CLIENTS OR ANY OTHER THIRD PARTY.

In accordance with the European Market in Financial Instruments Directive ("MiFID") as implemented in the General Regulation of the French Autorité des Marchés Financiers, this document should be treated as a marketing communication providing investment recommendations and should not be treated as a research report issued by SG's Research department.

Nothing in this document should be construed as constituting investment advice or personal recommendation (within the meaning of article 4 (4) of the MiFID) to any investor or its agent.

SG has in place policies and procedures to ensure that its employees act in the best interests of clients when providing them with any financial promotions or investment recommendations. These policies include internal conflicts of interests and personal account dealing policies that are designed to ensure that SG's employees are not conflicted in the financial promotions that they provide to clients.

SG is subject to the provisions of the fourth iteration of the Capital Requirements Directive ("CRD IV"), which requires that institutions' remuneration policies incorporate measures to avoid conflicts of interest. With this in mind, there is no direct linkage between the investment recommendations given by SG's employees and any variable remuneration that they receive. However, the revenue generated for SG as a result of the activities of its employees may be one of the various quantitative and qualitative factors that are considered in remuneration of SG's employees, alongside an assessment of the quality of service provided to clients and their commitment to the compliance and risk management arrangements of SG.

Societe Generale is a French credit institution (bank) authorised and supervised by the European Central Bank (ECB) and the Autorité de Contrôle Prudentiel et de Résolution (the French Prudential Control and Resolution Authority) (ACPR) and regulated by the Autorité des Marchés Financiers (the French financial markets regulator) (AMF).

Societe Generale London Branch is authorised by the Prudential Regulation Authority with deemed variation of permission and is subject to regulation by the Financial Conduct Authority and limited regulation by the Prudential Regulation Authority. Details of the Temporary Permissions Regime, which allows EEA-based firms to operate in the UK for a limited period while seeking full authorisation, are available on the Financial Conduct Authority's website.

NOTICE TO U.S. INVESTORS:

Communications written by SG personnel in the U.S. are a product of SG Americas Securities LLC ("SGAS"), a U.S. registered broker-dealer and futures commission merchant ("FCM"). SGAS is a member of FINRA, NYSE, NFA and SIPC. Such communications are directed: (i) only to institutional investors (as defined under FINRA Rule 2210); (ii) when referencing options, only to such institutional investors who have received and reviewed the proper options risk disclosure document titled "Characteristics and Risks of Standardized Options" at <http://www.optionsclearing.com/about/publications/character-risks.jsp>; and (iii), when referencing security futures, only to such institutional investors who have received and reviewed the proper security futures risk disclosure document titled "Risk Disclosure Statement for Security Futures Contracts" at <http://www.nfa.futures.org/NFA-compliance/publication-library/security-futures-disclosure.pdf>. Trading in options and security futures involves additional risks and is not suitable for all investors. Please visit <http://www.sgasdisclosure.com/> for important disclosures regarding SGAS and transactions you may enter into with SGAS.

In addition, for the sole purpose of CFTC Rule 1.71(a)(9), to the extent the trade idea or commentary contained herein includes an analysis of a price of a derivative and contains information reasonably sufficient to base a decision to enter into a derivatives transaction, it is conveyed as a solicitation for entering into a derivatives transaction.

Communications that are written by SG personnel located outside the US are distributed in the U.S. pursuant to SEC Rule 15a-6. Distribution is restricted to "Major U.S. Institutional investors" only (as defined in SEC Rule 15a-6). Any Major U.S. Institutional Investor wishing to discuss this institutional sales document, or effect transactions in any security or financial instrument discussed herein should do so with or through their salesperson at SGAS. The SGAS registered address is at 245 Park Avenue, New York, NY, 10167. (212)-278-6000.

Transactions in derivative instruments involve numerous risks including, among others, market, counterparty default and liquidity risk. If you are a "U.S. person" (as defined by the U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission), please visit <http://swapdisclosure.sqcb.com/> for important information with respect to derivative products. By transacting with SG, you are deemed to acknowledge that you have read and accepted the information provided on the website.

SG and affiliates are not acting as your fiduciary under Section 15B of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Act"), and, unless we have agreed in writing to act as your municipal advisor, our relationship will not be subject to the provisions of such Section 15B, the rules there under, or the rules issued by the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board that relate to the provision of advice to municipal entities or their obligated persons.

Exchange Traded Funds ("ETFs") are redeemable only in specified units and only through a broker that is an authorized participant in that ETF program. SGAS acts as an authorized participant for a number of ETF programs and participates in the creation and redemption of ETFs, including ETFs that may be referenced in this document. SGAS, as an authorized participant or otherwise, may acquire securities of issuers of ETFs for the purpose of resale. Redemptions are for the underlying securities. The public trading price of a redeemable unit of an ETF may be different from its net asset value. An ETF can trade at a discount or premium to the net asset value. There is always a risk of declining stock prices, which can cause investment losses. Clients should consider their investment objectives and the risks, charges and expenses of an ETF before investing. Each ETF prospectus contains such information and it is recommended that clients review such prospectus before investing.

NOTICE TO CANADIAN INVESTORS:

This document is intended for use by Permitted Clients, as defined under National Instrument 31-103, Accredited Investors, as defined under National Instrument 45-106, and to the extent related to derivatives, Accredited Counterparties as defined under the Derivatives Act (Québec) and, in certain provinces, "Qualified Parties" as defined under applicable provincial rules or orders.

In Canada, certain services may be provided by Société Générale Capital Canada Inc. ("SGCC"), being a regulated entity, having a principal place of business at 1501 McGill College Ave., suite 1800, Montréal, Québec, Canada, H3A 3M8. SGCC is an affiliate of Société Générale S.A. (French banking institution) and SG Americas Securities LLC. SGCC is a member of the Canadian Investor Protection Funds (www.cipf.ca). Société Générale S.A. is not a Canadian regulated financial institution and does not carry on business in Canada.

Canadian investors should consult their own tax advisors to determine the Canadian tax consequences of purchasing, holding and redeeming any product described herein. For the province of Quebec (Canada), it is the express wish of the parties that this document be drawn up in the English language only. Il est de la volonté expresse des parties que ce document soit rédigé en anglais seulement.

NOTICE TO SWISS INVESTORS:

This document is reserved and must be given in Switzerland exclusively to (i) FINMA licensed entities (i.e. banks, securities dealers, fund managers, asset managers of funds and insurance companies) or (ii) pension funds and corporates having their own treasury department in Switzerland. The products mentioned in this document may not be suitable for all types of investors.

This document does not constitute an offer to purchase any product and it does not contain personal recommendations or personalized investment advice. It is not intended to substitute any professional advice on investments in financial products. We have not checked the appropriateness or suitability of any financial products for you.

This document is of summary and generic nature. The products referred to herein involve numerous risks (including, without limitations, credit risk, market risk, liquidity risk and currency risk). In respect of securities trading, please refer for more information on such risks to the risk disclosure brochure "Special Risks in Securities Trading (Edition 2008 and as updated from time to time)", which is available for free on the following website of the Swiss Bankers' Association: <http://www.swissbanking.org/en/home>.

This document is neither a prospectus as per article 652a or 1156 of the Swiss Code of Obligations, a listing prospectus according to the listing rules of the SIX Swiss Exchange or any other exchange or regulated trading facility in Switzerland, nor a simplified prospectus, key investor information document or prospectus as defined in the Swiss Federal Collective Investment Schemes Act. Any benchmarks/indices cited in this document are provided for information purposes only. Investment decisions should only be taken based on the complete prospectus if available. Please contact your SG contact person to receive a complete prospectus.

This document is not the result of a financial analysis and therefore is not subject to the "Directive on the Independence of Financial Research" of the Swiss Bankers Association.

All the products mentioned in this document may not be available to you.

Benchmark Rate Potential Termination:

Parties entering into transactions (such as a derivative or financing transaction) or investing in financial instruments that use an index or a variable interest rate (benchmark) are exposed to the risk that:

(1) such benchmark may be subject to methodological or other changes which could affect the value of the relevant transaction; or

(2) (i) may become not compliant with applicable laws and regulations (such as the European Benchmark Regulation), (ii) may cease to be published (possible cessation of LIBOR publication or planned cessation of EONIA both after December 2021), or (iii) the supervisor or administrator of any such benchmark may make a statement that the relevant benchmark is no longer representative, and as a consequence the relevant benchmark may be replaced by another benchmark which may have an adverse and material impact on the economics of the relevant transactions.

You should conduct your own independent investigation and analysis of the potential consequences of any relevant risks such as those mentioned above, particularly in light of the ongoing industry initiatives related to the development of alternative reference rates and the update of the relevant market standard documentation.
